Wylie Pirates Defeat Celina Here Friday

By FRED DICKINSON

The Wylie High Pirates, a young ball club with a lot of fire and a sharp passing game, outlasted a terrific last quarter surge to defeat Celina's battling Bobcats, 42-41 at Caldwell gymnasium in McKinney, Friday night, before a capacity crowd of cheering fans.

The victory gave the Maroon and White charges of Coach R. C. Dodd the District 42-B boys basketball title and put them in the bi-district play-offs against the Howe High School Bulldogs of Grayson County.

It was the second victory in the three game series for the Pirates, who won at Wylie Thursday night, 50-42 count.

Wylie represented the East Zone of District 42-B, while Celina represented the West Zone. All teams in the district are Collin County clubs.

The Pirates, off to a big lead in the first quarter and still leading by ten points with 4 minutes and 40 seconds left in the final round almost became the victims of one of the biggest rallies in the history of county play as the Bobcats dumped in four straight field goals to narrow the margin to 37-32 with less than two minutes left. Coach Buddy Smith's Bobcats seemed almost unstoppable in the third quarter as they outscored the Pirates 15 to 4 to take a 34-29 lead with only 1:30 left to play in the third period.

Officials from Grandbury, the 11-A champions met with Plano officials to consider a bidistrict date, but couldn't get together on where they will stage it. Handley seems the most likely spot.

Red Massey's Wildcats had some anxious moments in the first half and led by only 23-21 at the intermission. But Doyle Braden and Tommy Shields, the Wildcats' all-district standouts, moved Plano into a slight third quarter lead and made it a commanding one in the fourth.

Braden hit seven of nine shots in the second half and had the game's high of 21 points. Shields scored on five of 10 in that half and had a total of 15 for the night.

Plano hit 53 per cent of its shots from the floor in that half and that doomed Duncanville's chances of a tie. Plano finished with an 11-1 district mark and Duncanville tied with Richardson for second with nine wins and three losses.

Duncanville kept it close until its fine rebounder, John Blankenship, fouled out midway of the third. Plano led at that point, 38-32. Blankenship, Tommy Fender, fat on two quick goals to cut it to 40-37. They whittled Plano's lead even more and trailed by 45-44, one minute deep in the final quarter. But Lewis Allman, Shields and Glen Fuller scored quickly on successive baskets and Duncanville couldn't cope with the outburst.

The game started slowly with Duncanville leading 9-7, at the quarter. Plano led for the first time at 19-17 after the game was 14 minutes old.

Leonard Bell, the District's top scorer, rang down his Duncanville career, with 19 points. Tommy Case added 10.

MIDLOTHOAN, Texas — Plano's classy Wildcats made its three championships in a row here Thursday night with a 71-56 victory over Duncanville in the final 12-A game for both teams.

Lionesses To Play Sherman Thursday Night

The Girls' Basketball team of Boyd High Schol will meet the Sherman lassies Thursday night in the final game of conference play, to determine district winners.

The game will be played at 7 o'clock at Caldwell Gym in this city. Miss Mary Edmaston is coach of the McKinney girls.

Mrs. J. McCarty Dowell Sr. and Mrs. Inez Wilson, attended a D. A. R. luncheon at the Statler-Hilton Hotel, in Dallas, Tuesday. They were joined there by Mrs. A. V. Leeper and Mrs. J. McCarty Dowell of Dallas.

Wylie High Girls Wins First Game Of Playoff

The Wylie High School girl's basketball team won the first game of their play-of series from the Allen girls, at Allen, Saturday night, by a 54 to 49-score.

The county and district championship is at stake. Wylie won the East Zone championship with 10 straight victories, while Allen copped the West Zone title with nine victories against only one defeat.

Wylie lagged 10 points behind at the half as the smaller Allen team played flawlessly to go ahead, 14-14 at that juncture. The Maroon and White charges of Coach R. C. Dodd were running into bad luck with a great number of shots that just missed or jumped out of the basket, while the Allen girls coached by Max Vaughn, played superbly in the floor department and made every shot count.

However, deep in the third quarter, Coach Dodd's girls, who were district and bi-district champions last year, finally got the range. As a tremendous overflow crowd watched, they scored sixteen points in the last four minutes of the third quarter to go ahead 30-25 at the juncture. Allen managed to tie it up and go ahead in the first minute of the fourth quarter, but Wylie went ahead three minutes later and stayed there to win going away.

Ruth Cross and Gail Dempsey, two the forwards both of whom can hit the basket from any place and any distance were the heart of this tremendous comeback. Both had run into bad luck in the first half with shot after shot that trickled away from the basket, but four minutes deep in the third they started hitting from up close as they got terrific help in the passing game from the other forward Kathryn Eubanks. As the game wore on they seemed to hit from farther and farther out. Cross repeatedly drew Allen's fine guard court out of position with long shots from the corner, while Dempsey hit several from beyond the circle.

Cross was held to only two points in the first half but she scored 12 in the third quarter and 8 in the fourth. Dempsey was high scorer for the night with 30 points.

Allen, featuring some fine shot-making by Sherley Dugger and terrific floorwork by guard Sandra Miller the smallest player on the court, jumped into a 9-8 lead at the end of the first quarter. The Allen forward trio of Ilene Crank, Dugger and Dorothy Moore worked well as they brought the ball in close with a fine passing game that gave them a number of good short shots and also caused the Wylie guard court headed by Martha Hooper, to foul repeatedly. Dugger sank 11 foul shots during the game and led the Allen attack with 25 points. In the second quarter, Allen used a very deceptive cross passing attack with substitute forward Sharon Moseley hitting three in a row to gain their 24-14 lead. Halfway through the third quarter they were still ahead, 33-20, on a long shot by Dugger, but that was the point at which Cross and Dempsey found the range. The roof literally caved in on Coach Vaughn's talented little team after that.

Outstanding in the defensive department for Wylie were Hooper, Betty Jane and Charlene Shields. For Allen Miller, Barbara Hedgcoxe and Patsy Wilcox were outstanding on the defense.

The Wylie girls' B team also won by a 32-11 score with Frances and Carolyn the Connelly sisters leading the attack.

Merchants Here Are Stocked For Spring

Regardless of what the weatherman says, Spring is just around the corner.

And although this information comes from a person who does not claim to be a weather prophet, there is a note of authority in his prediction.

M. A. Jones, manager of the Retail Merchants Association, made his weather observation today after a swing around the local mercantile establishments.

Everywhere, Mr. Jones reports, Spring is in the air. Counters and show cases at every place he visited exemplify that the merchants are well-prepared for what is expected to be the biggest Spring buying season in McKinney history.

Since Spring is the time for people to set out their garden, plan their vacation, repaint their motor boat, test their fishing lines, clean their golf clubs and plan week-end outdoor outings, Mr. Jones jotted down various Spring specials and the types of stores that will carry such items by classification of Spring projects. Here they are:

For sportsmen—Spring is the most pleasant time of the year to pursue your favorite sport. Sporting goods stores have available the latest equipment in all sports lines, whether it be baseball, golf, tennis, swimming, boating or fishing. Most sporting goods stores and all department stores and wearing apparel specialty stores carry all types of sports wear, whether it be fishing boots or golfer sweaters. Most hardware stores also carry sports lines, especially in the field of fishing.

For those planning Spring parties Now is the time to get ready for various entertainments with your friends, whether it be an outdoor barbecue with your neighbors or a spring formal. Check your barbecue pit to see if any of your cooking utensils have become misplaced during the winter. All hardware and department stores and most grocery stores carry many items for outdoor cooking. Many new lines in outdoor furniture have been added this year by your favorite furniture store. You may want to buy this year the outdoor set of furniture you have been putting off buying for so long. The latest fashions for Spring parties, both formal and informal, have been stocked by women's wear stores. If the party you are attending requires a gift, jewelry stores can furnish you with suggestions, binoculars for the men, earring sets for the ladies and cigarette lighters for both sexes.

For the vacationer—It will only be a short time until vacations begin. Get ready now. Check the tires on your car. Any automobile supply store or service station will be glad to help you pick out replacements. If you are making a long trip, a car radio will break the boredom, and don't forget to stop at the drug store and pick up suntan lotion, sun glasses, camera equipment and insect repellent. A car ice box is a handy item. Most grocery stores, hardware stores, automobile supply stores, sporting goods stores and service stations have them.

For the home outdoor man—It is not too early to plant many types of vegetables. Seed can be found at any seed house and most hardware and grocery stores. They also carry garden equipment such as hoes, rakes, shovels, etc. Spring is the time to make repairs around the home. Appliance shops and hardware stores can furnish you the replacement items. Spring is the most popular time to clean up your home and yard. Hardware stores are the best place to shop for workman's equipment including power saws, lawn mowers, etc.

Many special events will be observed during the next three months (March, April and May) during which periods may stores will offer bargains.

National Drama Month will begin March 1; 4-H Club Week will run from March 3-11; Save Your Vision Week is scheduled for March 4-10; the Camp Fire Girls will have Birthday Week March 11-18; Irish Linen Week (stores carrying linens will doubtlessly have specials at that time) March 12-17; National Wildlife Week will be March 18-24; and don't forget a gift for your mother-in-law on Mother-in-Law Day, March 28. Easter Sunday comes on April 1 (have you bought your spring outfit yet?); April 1 will also be Daughter's Day and April Fool's Day will open National Laugh Week and National Boys Club Week. The second week in April will be National Model Building Week and the following week National Do-It-Yourself Week. Hardwood Week will be observed April 12-21; National Baby Week will run from April 29-May 5. The month of April has been designated Clean-Up, Paint-Up, Fix-Up Time. National Garden Week will be held April 22-28; National Music Week will be observed May 6-12; Mother's Day will come May 13. Many bargains in leather goods may be obtained during National Luggage and Leather Goods Week May 12-19 and Better Bedding Time is scheduled for May.

The income tax division of our government should be mighty glad the taxpayers have what it takes.

Seen About Town

By CAPT. ROY F. HALL

A ten-year-old boy from the West Ward school asked me a few days ago what old nations were ruled by a king, who was made king because he could best every man in the nation with feats of strength and arms. He said he saw on TV where some ancient kingdoms got their kings that way. Had to tell him none. So far as I know no man ever became a ruler through bodily strength and bravery, unless there was something else behind him, like being a member of a royal family and in line for the kingdom, etc. The strength that many used in ye olden days to rise to leadership was the strength of brain power, coupled with a determined will to sacrifice his all for the betterment of his nation. We boast that such can only happen in America. Poppycock! It has occurred and still occurs anywhere under the sun. A leader is in demand, no matter what nation he lives in.

Visiting in an adjoining county last week, I had occasion to call at the post office there to ask the address of a business firm that was supposed to operate, and send out mail from that post office. I could not find the firm in town and nobody had heard of it, so I went to the post office. Boy, the chills reception I got! Used to the courteous gang of Don Davis' I walked up and asked about the business firm. The clerk at the window stepped back and motioned for someone. Another man came up back of him, and still another. They stood a full minute staring at me, and I repeated my request, much weaker this time. "Look here, mister," he said harshly. "This is a United States post office, and we do not go in for furnishing information that you can get at the Chamber of Commerce." I sneaked out, glad to escape with my life. It is just barely possible that we do not appreciate our post office force in this little city unless we happen to run into something like I did.

The cold spell over the week-end was good for us, if we are to have any fruit this year. Peach trees, so they say, have to have so many hours of temperature below 40 degrees or there will be no fruit. I can't recall how many hours this has to be, but I feel that we have had what it takes. My private opinion is that we have to have a late spring to have peaches, or a late frost will nip them. If buds are kept back by cold weather, so that they cannot blossom until about April 1, we have fruit, as the date of the last killing frost — average — that occurs here has been, for the last ten years, on March 26. It takes peach trees three weeks in warm, sunshiny weather to get to the blossoming stage from a dormant bud. So far, all buds are dormant, and we have over a month of danger ahead of us. I look for a fairly late spring and a sudden summer. Not merely guesswork, the weather pattern is set that way. And the pattern too, shows a lot more rain in the offing.

Got a letter last week from Miss Judy Garland. Yes, sir, Judy sent me a nice letter. What surprised me most though, aside from receiving a letter from her, was the fact that Judy lives at Farmersville, Route three. Apparently too, Judy is still going to school, for she wants to know something of the history of a man to use in her school work.

Another letter from Mrs. Mattie Scott of Celburne, Texas, telling of her father, O. T. Plummer, who came to McKinney from Tennessee in 1857. She said her father stayed in McKinney several months and made a living by hauling water to the people who lived here from the one well in town. Plummer left here for Fort Worth to find his cousin, Gen. Edward H. Tarrant, for whom Tarrant County was named. Plummer organized a company for the Civil War and became its captain. Mrs. Scott is 85 years of age. The one well she mentions was on the southeast corner of the square in front of the present McKinney Dry Goods Company. It was about forty feet deep and twenty feet in diameter. Still there, but covered over.

The big bright star you see in the evening sky is Venus, which is not really a star at all, but one of the eight planets that revolves around the sun. Venus is not quite so big as the earth, but is brighter, that is, if both could be seen from the same distance. Venus would shine with a more brilliant light. Venus is completely enclosed with a dense mass of cloud-like vapor through which no telescope has ever peered. She is much nearer the sun then we are and is probably warmer. The envelope around her though may so temper the suns rays that live on her, if there is any, could live in a perpetual hot-house, no winter, no summer, nothing but a climate ideal in every respect. According to Einstein, time is the fourth dimension.

Fitzugh Newsome went over to Fort Worth and bought the finest hog he could find in the Stock Shows, a hog of such gentle ancestry that he would not even drink swill or eat out of a trough. Turned out on the farm though, the gentlemanly swine got right down and wallowed in the mud like the rest. "Just a hog," Fitzhugh groaned. "Just another hog."

High School Library Purchases Book Of Sam Houston Etchings

The McKinney High School library has received a very rare book of historical etchings, by the nationally eminent etcher, Mr. Nernhardt Wall, etcher of books, according to the librarian, Miss Miss Varone Darnell.

Entitled Following Sam Houston, the book contains 72 etchings of General Sam Houston, the places he lived, worked and visited in his lifetime.

This is strictly a hand-made book. Every plate is hand-designed, hand-etched and every page is hand-embossed by an artist from an individual inking. An etching is more difficult to make than an oil painting.

This book it made for the library alone, would cost approximately $10,000. As it is the cost is $25. Out of the sale of these books $5.00 is applied by the Executive Committee of the Texas Association of School Administrators, on a scholarship for college freshmen who pledge themselves to enter a teaching career.

Our production of Following Sam Houston will be limited this year to about 200 copies.

VENUS BECOMES PROMINENT IN 1956
By CHARLES ANDERSON

Perhaps many people have been wondering about the unusual bright Evening Star this month. This article is being written to acquaint the general public with this third brightest object visible in the heavens.

First of all, we should explain that the "star" isn't actually a star at all, but a planet, namely, Venus. Planets differ from stars in that they shine by reflected light from the sun while stars shine by light produced by their own energy. Also the stars are much farther away than the planets.

Venus is one of the nearer planets to the earth. When it is nearest, the planet is about 27 million miles from the earth. Then Venus is at its greatest brilliancy-much brighter than it is now. At these times, we may be able to spot Venus in the daytime sky, if we know exactly where to look. The planet is usually visible as a Morning or Evening Star, according to its position in relation to the earth. Its brightness changes with the planet's varying distance from the earth.

Since Venus is almost exactly as large as the earth, it is sometimes called the earth's "twin sister." We know very little about the surface of Venus since it is enveloped in layers of heavy clouds. These clouds account for the planet's great brightness since they reflect nearly all light reaching them.

Venus will probably remain visible in the evening sky until July. At that time it will move into the morning sky, reaching its greatest brilliance. The earth's sister is gradually easy to identify in the sky since it is usually the brightest "star" visible. The Planet Mars will be at its closest distance to the earth in fifteen years this summer, so don't confuse the two. Always remember Venus is visible for a few hours only after sunset and before sunrise. It can never be seen at midnight! Mars will be visible as a red very bright star in the eastern sky around midnight in June and July.

The writer has attempted to explain in simple language a few of the characteristics of our current Evening Star. Any further inquiries are invited.

Light And Life Hour On Station KMAE Sunday 2 P. M.

DR. MYRON F. BOYD

The newest addition to the K M A E log is the "Light and Life Hour," being carried Sunday afternoon at two o'clock.

The half-hour Gospel broadcast is brought to this area through the Churches in Rockwall, Dallas, and Ft. Worth.

The Light and Life Hour is the world-wide broadcast of the Free Methodist Church, and has developed from a single-station local program in Detroit, Michigan, in the early 1940's to the impressive international broadcast it is today.

Dr. Myron F. Boyd is the voice of the hour, having been director and speaker since 1954. Prior to his appointment as director, Dr. Boyd was for fifteen years a pastor in the Pacific Northwest. He conducted a Gospel Clinic broadcast for ten years and served as Youth for Christ director in Seattle, Washington, one year.

Normally carried over the ABC network, the program has been placed over the local station as the first step in bringing state-wide coverage to Texas.

Listeners in the immediate McKinney are cordially invited to share the fine ministry of this broadcast. For the past four consecutive years the Light and Life Hour has captured the first place award and trophy from the National Association of Religious Broadcasters, an interdenominational organization.

The Residents of the home joined the young people in singing When We All Get To Heaven.

Mrs. T. E. Williams, G. A. Counselor, pronounced the benediction. Cookies were served to the residents of the home.

Collin Retail Sales Show 27.7% Increase

Retail sales in 1954 of 513 stores in Collin County totaled $32,431,000, according to preliminary 1954 Census of Business figures announced by the Bureau of the Census, Department of Commerce. This was an increase (1) of 27.7 percent over sales in 1948 of 514 stores at $25,434,000. Stores with payroll in 1954 numbered 307, had 1,114 paid employees in November 1954, reported payroll of $2,276,000, and accounted for sales of $27,637,000. Proprietors of unincorporated businesses numbered 542. The number of stores and their 1954 sales grouped by major kinds of business were:

Kind of Business Group	No. Stores	1954 Sales (Dol.)
Food stores	140	$9,446,000

Dixie Life Insurance Company has fully reinsured the John K. Wilson Mutual Aid Association. The merger was approved by the Texas Board of Insurance Commissioners a few days ago.

John Morgan, local manager for Dixie, said that certificates were being mailed at once to all members of the Wilson Association showing that their insurance was fully guaranteed by Dixie Life. Amounts of insurance on each Wilson policy are guaranteed without change.

In commenting upon the gift, Miss Parkerson states "Our patients are eager for any news from their own home town. However, with so much idle time on their hands, a paper is read from cover to cover."

Duke & Ayres To Celebrate 56th Anniversary

A McKinney business firm, which has operated here for the past 56 years, is celebrating the occasion Saturday, February 25. Duke & Ayres, the firm has enjoyed that many years of continuous, successful business in McKinney. To celebrate the occasion, a one-day sale is being held at the store whereby the patrons of Duke & Ayres will find many outstanding bargains offered in merchandise announced Ed Tatum, Manager.

Duke's Nickel Store was founded in Bowie, Texas, in 1894 and progressed in a very satisfactory manner. At a later date, Mr. Teal joined Mr. Duke and soon thereafter became a stockholder in the business. The name was changed from Duke's Nickel Store to Duke and Teal.

The business continued to prosper and grow and later Newton Ayres joined the Messrs Duke and Teal. He soon became a stockholder. The business grew until in 1909 it was incorporated under the name of Duke & Ayres, Inc. The business has continued to prosper and was able to stick through money panics, business recession, depressions and world wars, until it is now operating stores in 46 communities 43 of which are located in Texas.

The company is operated on the same high plane as when first founded, with the slogan "The Price is the Thing."

The 56 year old Duke & Ayres store has been part of the business life of McKinney, the company has expanded from a small variety store to one of the most modern businesses of the city.

One of the first locations in McKinney was on East Virginia Street in the building now occupied by England's Tailor Shop. At another time it was located on East Louisiana Street, and for a number of years was on the North Side of the public square, where the North Side Pharmacy is now located.

The present location was acquired in 1939, on the Northeast corner of the public square in the old Shain building. The building was modernized, completely renovated, decorated and furnished with the necessary equipment to render quick and convenient service to the Duke & Ayres customers. Within the past year a new glass front has replaced the former style of show windows and entrances, and the building has been completely air-conditioned.

Manager Tatum has been a Duke & Ayres man for the past 17 years, having been assigned to the local store on two different occasions. He first came here in 1940 for a short period. In 1942 he returned to McKinney as store manager, and has since remained in that important capacity.

Mr. and Mrs. Tatum and their fine young son, Webb, are members of the First Baptist Church. Ed is also a Jaycee, member of the Chamber of Commerce, and identified with other civic interests of his home community.

During their big one-day sale Saturday, the store will be filled with hundreds of bargains. Many of them will be found in the advertising columns of the Daily Courier-Gazette this week. A few of them include ladies' first quality 60 guage 15 denier nylon hose, 2 pair for $1; 26-quart metal waste basket, 69 cents; ladies' rayon gowns and slips, 79 cents each; rayon pants, four pair for 88 cents; men's sox 6 pair for 85 cents; men's handkerchiefs 7 cents each; and others.

In the candy department chocolate coated peanuts will sell for only 39 cents per pound and home style fudge at 19 cents per pound.

Carlton Harrison, vice president of the company, has been in McKinney recently assisting Mr. Tatum in getting ready for the big anniversary sale. A special feature of the day will be gifts of free balloons for the kiddies, and pot plants for the ladies.

The accommodating and courteous staff of salespeople who assist Manager Tatum are the following: Dwayne Taylor, assistant manager.

Saleslades: Miss Louise Warren, Mrs. Joe Scott, Mrs. Carnell Brown, Mrs. Willie V. Parvin, Mrs. Susie Rains, Miss Linda McNeil, Miss Mary Lowry, Miss Pat Davidson, Miss Martha Myrick, Miss Karen Thomas and Miss Nancy Dunnaway.
